Pre-conference webinar "Implementation in a changing world"

Tuesday 29 April, 12.00-1.00pm AEST

This presentation by Bianca Albers, who is a Principal Implementation Specialist, will introduce some of the current challenges in implementation practice and science and in doing so bridge two central strands of implementation thinking - one rooted in political science, the other one in health.

This webinar will give an insight into the presentations and discussions at the conference in September.
